Non-member guests must register on the same form as the registering member they are accompanying. "Member" in this case refers to both members of WNYCC or members of another club co-hosting or invited to an event. Both members and their guests must abide by the WNYCC code of conduct. Members are responsible for their guest's behavior as it relates to this code. The code covers violations of the laws of the land, or of the amusement or theme parks; failure to meet financial obligations to WNYCC; detrimental conduct; and violations of the Constitution, Bylaws, or other enactments of WNYCC. Detrimental conduct shall include any violations of the purpose of WNYCC (to promote the preservation, appreciation, knowledge, and, especially, the enjoyment of roller coasters, past and present; to create and promote among and between its members a tie of fellowship; to maintain good working relations with the parks and operate in harmony with their policies); or of the rights of its members.
